

ALERT CADET HIGH ADVENTURE CAMP – JULY 2025
IN THE BOUNDARY WATERS CANOE AREA WILDERNESS
ALONG THE CANADIAN BORDER

Date: Friday July 11 to Friday July 18, 2025

Seven days of canoeing through pristine wilderness area in Northern Minnesota. Enjoy canoeing, camping, fishing (license is required), bible study, spending father-son time immersed in creation, and fellowship with other fathers and sons.

River guides are provided by Whetstone Ministries, which is led by the founding ALERT Commander Ron Fuhman.

Cost: $450 per person plus a $35 non-refundable registration fee per family. All mealtime food is included. While tents will be provided, each person is responsible for bringing their own sleeping bag and ground pad. A "what to bring" list is available at <https://www.whetstoneministries.com/trip-planning>.

As with other ALERT Cadet camps, fathers must participate with their sons. Sergeants are invited to attend with or without their father. Successful completion of this camp earns the High Adventure Camp Participation award.
